The order issued last year is clear that he should retire on 1st July 1904

The reasons for the present recommendation are —

(1) that Mr Venkatapataraingar wishes to draw up a report for 1903 04 showing the progress of Education in the Bangalore District Since 1875 in which year he took charge of the Dt —

Camp Tirumakudlu Narsipur 17th May 1904

Dear Sir,

Last year orders were passed for the retirement of Messrs Kung, Arbuthnott, and Venkatapathengar with effect from 1st July 1904. I recommended after inspecting the Shimoga College that Mr. Kung's services might be retained to the end of the academical year. Government have sanctioned the retention of the services of Mr. Kung to 31st December 1904 and also of Mr. Arbuthnott to the same date.

Mr. Venkatapathengar now applies that the same concession may be granted to him. Since 1875 - he has been Deputy Inspector of Bangalore District, and he would like to write the Report of his district for 1903-04 showing the progress of education in it, since he took charge of it. If his services are retained he will be useful also in bringing the newly established Industrial Schools in Doddaballapur and Channapatna into good working order, and in forming a Co-operative Credit Society of weavers at the former place. I shall be glad if Government can kindly allow Mr. Venkatapathiengar to remain in office till the end of this Calendar year.

Yours sincerely
H J Bhabha
